

Brainstorming Web – A brainstorming web starts with a core concept or main idea at its center. Information related to the main idea is identified in a free-flowing manner and radiates outward from general to specific, linking related ideas.

EXAMPLE:

©International Center for Leadership in Education, Inc.

Please see next page for blank Brainstorming Web.

