

Clustering Web – Clustering generates ideas, images and feelings around a stimulus word. One idea builds on another, enabling students to enlarge and categorize their ideas for writing and to see patterns in their thoughts. The clustering web differs from the brainstorming web in that ideas are grouped in logical categories or clusters.

EXAMPLE:

